In the year 340,000 AD, Earth is on the brink of extinction. Hazou and Wenqi - two best friends, scientists, are on the brink of creating a plant that could hold enough water for 100,000 colonists. The plants are to be installed inside the seed-ships in the near future for colonist transportation.

The experiment backfires and Hazou and Wenqi are badly injured. They are kicked out of the organization they dedicate their lives unto. As they try to recover from this unprecedented blow, Nuan - Hazou's sister - turns up at their doorstep with her daughter and a horrifying tale.

Battling assassins, and people who don't believe in them anymore, Hazou and Wenqi must find a way to triumph against all odds. Are they prepared for what lies ahead?
